

Trip in the Northeastern Part of Thailand

It has been 3 days (12 February 2019) we are on the trip in I-San or the northeastern part of Thailand. The tour was to Nakorn Ratchasima, Khon Khaen, Mahasarakham, Kalasin, Sakon Nakorn, Nakorn Phanom, and Mookdahan, visiting ancient temples, archeological sites, museums and communities. The students of Tourism Management have gained knowledge in various aspects of socio-economic and cultural development of the region, including sites of the pre- historical and historical significance. They also have an opportunity to speak English describing places and perform a daily tour guide. At the end of each day, students who performed local tourist guide of the day have small meeting with the professional guide and the lecturers for receiving comments and feedback, and those who are responsible for tourist guide tasks the next day also meet for a briefing and planning for their operation. Today is the 4th day. This morning we are leaving Mookdahan to Roi-et, on the way visiting Wat Phrasri Mahapho Temple.
