

Tourism Management Students and 2nd SSRUIC Mini Conference

On 1 May 2019, third year students from Tourism Management Program presented academic paper in 2nd SSRUIC Mini Conference. They showed potential as a young researcher in tourism issue and their research findings are beneficial to enhance competitiveness for Thailand tourism industry. Different ideas are shared while specialists from tourism research field were also invited for suggestion.

