

Lecturers from Tourism Management joined IT Skills Development Session

On 22 May 2019, Lecturers from tourism management, International College, joined the session for IT skills development. Throughout the session, lecturers learnt how to develop their own personal and department website, e-learning, and database for academic research.

