

Tourist Guide Simulations for Tourism Management Students

Dr. Siripen Yiamjanya organized a class for tourist guide approach by tackling simulations presenting Thai historical spots such as old temples and palaces from many provinces. Students practiced giving a short introduction to each destination and learnt tourist guide skills. When Covid-19 end point occurs, Tourism Managements students will take a journey to all regions in Thailand again for learning by doing.

